

Into the Wabanaki

Word Search: Trees of the Wabanaki

Learning what tree species grow in the forest is a great way to begin spending time in the woods.

Red Spruce

White Spruce

Balsam Fir

Sugar Maple

Red Maple

Yellow Birch

Eastern White Pine

Eastern Hemlock

American Beech

B F A A B I B K O E I X I Q X J C Z C O
F D J Z X D R K T A K A N M B L I J Q S
K F Y W O J S C Z S L X R E C R T V Q F
U W Z Y E S D C C T K B D A T S E I X E
L H V V G S B B P E E R S M B R A O G M
Z I R M H U P A Y R P E C E H V S M W Z
A T Z X S G M L E N P D G R W L T Q R U
Q E D T H A D S L H G S Q I Q L E U H J
M S S O E R Y A L E Y P U C O C R F T S
T P S B K M L M O M B R N A I G N K V R
I R X V H A G F W L D U R N X R W W Y A
Y U O W D P U I B O F C E B B C H I T C
L C O G T L T R I C V E D E Z R I X M I
X E B L A E O W R K C R M E U W T I H Z
A A U B R U U H C W I R A C P E E I F A
X T O H B A F Y H W H E P H T O P U F H
M U E A R G Y N O X F J L E K M I H F E
X T C R Y A C K I E P B E P K P N V I D
J L R G G O A J O N Q E E W K M E D W J
F Y H L O X E Z B T X G U U D Y B W F U

Search the forest

Follow the seasons and see what you can collect and learn about. Some ideas for items are suggested here.

- Spring: Ephemeral flowers
- Summer: Wild berries
- Fall: Fallen acorns
- Winter: Animal tracks

What the forest means to me

Fill in the blanks below and connect with why you enjoy and care about the forest.

I like when I see _____ in the forest.

My favourite thing to do in the forest is _____.

A forest makes me feel _____.

I care about the forest because _____.

Into the Wabanaki: A Forest Care Guide

Whether you're a forest caretaker, or just curious to learn more about the forest and the communities that call it home, the Forest Care Guide will help you connect and take the next steps on your forest journey. Learn more and download the full Forest Care Guide at: forestsinternational.org/forestcareguide